Atlantic City FC Announces 2023 National Premier Soccer League Schedule

Atlantic City FC is excited to announce its 2023 National Premier Soccer League (NPSL) schedule. The team will be joined by Philadelphia Union Development Reserves this year, adding to the already competitive Keystone East Conference.

All home games will be held at the Stockton University Galloway Campus's South Campus Turf field, and tickets will be available for $10 for adults with kids under 18 getting free admission.

The home opener will take place on Wednesday Night May 31 at 7:00 pm, with Atlantic City FC facing FC Monmouth at 7:00 PM. Other home games include matches against First State FC from Wilmington Delaware on June 17th. For the first time in club history ACFC will play the Philadelphia Union DS at home on Tuesday Night June 27th. On Saturday July 1st, defending national champion FC Motown will visit and the final home game will be Vs. Rival Jackson Lions FC on Saturday July 8th at 7:00 pm.

On the road, Atlantic City FC will begin its season on May 11th against First State FC in Wilmington, Delaware. They will then travel to YSC Sports in Wayne, Pennsylvania, to play against Philadelphia Union on May 20th.

The team will play against defending national champion FC Motown on May 27th at Red Bulls 2 stadium at Montclair State University, and then travel to Donovan Catholic High School on June 3rd to play against Jackson Lions SC.

If the team qualifies for the playoffs, they will be hosted by the high seed for the games, with the Conference Championship on July 15th, Regional Championship on July 22nd, National Semifinals on July 29th, and the National Championship on August 5th. Atlantic City FC is excited to showcase its talents this year and welcomes all soccer fans to come out and support the team.
